Session 2: 10:45 AM-12:15 PM
Turnitin.com: Anti-Plagiarism and Grade Mark Room: 801 Presenters: Kathleen Dorantes and Deirdre Rowley This workshop will present an overview of both the anti-plagiarism tools in Turnitin.com as well as the grading features. Attendees will get a chance to set up accounts and play around with the various options available.
Contextualized Learning and Paired Classes Room: 804 Presenters: Brian McNeece and Angie Ruiz This session will summarize IVC's recent experience with Contextualized Learning and Paired Classes and invite participants to create contextualized lessons of their own or plan for a pairing a lesson (or entire class) with another instructor.
12:15-1:15 PM
Lunch Room: Faculty Lounge
Session 3: 1:15-2:45 PM
Digital Imaging Basics Room: 801 Presenter: Andres Martinez This workshop will provide information on cropping and resizing images for classroom use, how to choose between formats, how to search for specific images, how to perform quick and easy enhancements to images, all using hands-on, interactive demonstrations.
Improving Student Engagement Room: 804 Moderators: Brian McNeece, Michael Heumann, and Bruce Seivertson This workshop will provide a chance for faculty in disparate areas to come together to explore ways to overcome the lack of student engagement in classes. We will brainstorm problems and offer hands-on demonstration of potential ways to make your classes more interactive and more student-driven.

2:45-3 PM
Afternoon Break Room: Faculty Lounge
Session 4: 3-4:30 PM
Getting the Most Out of Smart Classrooms Room: 2700 building Presenters: TBA This workshop will provide faculty with hands-on instruction in using the various tools available to us in the many smart classrooms on campus. You will have a chance to try out the document camera, plugging laptops into the podiums, using the BlueRay/DVD players, and many others. If you plan to attend this workshop, we encourage you to bring your laptop or other classroom equipment with you so you can try it out for yourself.
4:30-5 PM
Wrap-Up & Next Steps Room: 2725 Presenter: Michael Heumann
