Carlos Acuna Esq. – President, Board of Trustees
Imperial Valley College

Dear President Acuna,

Imperial Valley College is a vital college, engaged with its community and dedicated above all to student success.

It has been an intoxicating and exhilarating experience to have made many lifelong connections and friendships with faculty, staff and peers.

The opportunity of having worked with three CIO's, five Chief Business Officer's, union negotiators, the VP of Student Services, legal council, and the Human Resources Office Staff has been challenging and rewarding. I will treasure the soirees, "salons (A periodic gathering of people of social or intellectual distinction)", wine tasting, intellectual discussions and comrade especially with the superb new faculty hires, and the wisdom of faculty who came before.

Grace, Lency, and Sara who supported me while I was Interim VP of Instruction. Talented, creative, caring Division Chairs Tom Gilbertson, Melani Guinn, Fred Fisher, Krista Byrd, Dave Drury, David Zielinski, Jim Pendley, Lianna Zhao, Jill Tucker who always gave wise council in the best interest of the students and worked tirelessly so that Imperial Valley College is the college of choice. Roberta Bemis, Patti Biley, Frances Beope, Suzanne Gretz, Kelli Florman, and Deirdre Rowley who believe that where courage stops, the soul shrivels and so their courage never ceases.

Dennis Carnes, Jim Fisher, Robin Staton, Angie Ruiz, Mariaelena Thibodeaux who have seen suffering that has been pushed to such depths that there is no choice but to rise up again. Mary Jo Wainwright, Russ Lavery, Eric Lehtonen, Manfred Knaak, Kevin Marty, Ben Solomon who believe in rewarding & encouraging students who don't always reach the pinnacle of excellence, but who strive to touch the stars.

Cathy Zazueta, Stephen Pacheco, Daniel Gilison, Armand Orensztein, Gene Hill, Gail Parish, Dixie Krimm who carry no outer marks of spiritual authority, after all spiritual authority is not a gift that one person can bestow upon another or that can be earned with a graduate degree. It comes from having walked our path, explored our truth, made our mistakes, and learned our lessons.

Gonzalo Huerta, Efrain Silva, Victor Jaime, Kathie Westerfield, Kathy Berry, Kendra Jeffcoat, Renee Fenn, Ted Ceasar, Jan Magno, Sergio Lopez, Eileen Buckel, Robin Ying who like the redwood trees of Northern California, remind one of the powerful symbol of morality. Sometimes standing far apart, yet like the redwoods, our roots travel long distances underground, reaching out towards the roots of fellows.

When meeting, the root systems intertwine and form communities that support each other. Morality, at its best, functions in the same way. We begin to grow moral roots when becoming aware of our far reaching interconnections with others; Administrative beings who share a desire for usefulness and ethics.

My thanks to the Board and Kelly Keithly, former Board Member, for the opportunity to have known, learned and worked with you. I will miss you all and think of you as I transition down the road of life.

Contingent upon your approval, I will go on vacation August 7th and be back at Imperial Valley College periodically. I will continue to interact with colleagues, attend meetings of the Southern 30, Chief Human Resource Officers at the CHRO annual meeting, and resign effective October 2006.

Carlos, many thanks for all your wisdom and kindness.

With high regards,

Memorandum

To: Dr. Pai, President
CC: Human Resources
From: James Melvin Lee
Date: August 1, 2006
Re: Letter of intent for resignation.

Dear Dr. Pai

Upon being notified of the college's decision to deny my request for a leave of absence, I must regretfully submit my letter of resignation to pursue what I have already made plans for as stated in my previous letter.

I have faithfully served Imperial Valley College for 14 years as an English instructor, beginning as an adjunct instructor in 1992 until today as a full time tenured instructor. I have grown much, learned much, and experienced much from the wisdom of the countless encounters I have had with students, faculty, and administrators. To them all, I am grateful. To them all, I give a hearty thank you and farewell.

Perhaps in the future, if opportunity presents itself, I may contribute again to such a fine institution.

Respectfully,

James Melvin Lee

Board of Trustees
Imperial Valley College

Dear Dr. Pai and Board Members:

Since January 2001, I have been employed in various positions in the Disabled Students Program here at IVC. My ultimate goal, however, has been to work as a counselor. I now have an opportunity to transfer to the IVC Counseling Center and take a job as an Adjunct Counselor. In order to make this transition, it is necessary for me to resign from my position as Workability Specialist. Therefore, I am submitting this letter of resignation. My last day at DSP&S will be July 31, 2006.

Respectfully,

Kathie Westerfield,

It is with mixed emotions that I announce my resignation from my position as Student Services Assistant/Micrographics. This will be effective immediately with my last day of employment being two weeks from today, on August 11, 2006.

My time spent as an employee for Imperial Valley College has been a wonderful learning experience and the knowledge I have obtained will assuredly be beneficial to my future. The reason for my departure is because I am pursuing to further my education. Unfortunately, the institution I will be attending is located in another county and I must relocate in order to pursue my dreams.

Thank you for the opportunity to grow as an employee of the Admissions Office and for all of the knowledge I have acquired as a result of my employment. I greatly apologize for any inconvenience this may cause you or your establishment.

With Great Regards,

Nathaniel Noriega
