

STUDENT AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

The Student Ambassador Program provides opportunities for continuing Imperial Valley College students interested in developing their leadership effectiveness while building stronger connections between IVC, future students, and the community at large. IVC's Student Ambassadors assist and volunteer with the College's development events and enhance the welcoming of new students to the Imperial Valley College community. Additionally, Student Ambassadors will serve as the face of IVC at a number of community relation events.

Duties of an Imperial Valley College Ambassador may include:

- Assist with the Foundation's IVC 101 tours.
- Assist with the Foundation's annual fundraising and development events.
- Assist with the Communication Department's campus tours for K12 students.
- Provide assistance during departmental and campus events such as First Step, Orientation, IVC Day, Hall of Fame, Academic Festivals, Commencement (among others).
- Participate in college fairs and community expos.
- Attending quarterly Student Ambassador trainings and meetings.
- Ambassadors will receive an official IVC polo shirt, which will constitute a uniform that is expected to be worn during events, unless otherwise directed.
- Other duties as assigned throughout the academic school year.

Training and Stipend Information:

- Quarterly trainings will be offered where local leaders from Imperial Valley will make short presentations on topics relevant to leadership development and be available for questions and answer sessions with Student Ambassadors.
- Each student Ambassador will be issued a $200 Book Scholarship at the end of each semester as a stipend for being an IVC Student Ambassador during the semester.
