PUBLIC COMMENTS

Friends of the Earth Club President, Daniel Escobar introduced himself to the Senate. The purpose of his club is to get together with different local agencies, i.e., Social Services, Behavioral Health, etc. to bring awareness regarding different social issues such as bullying, mental illnesses and other issues that students face day-to-day. Mr. Jay Lewenstein is the club advisor and teaches English part-time at IVC. Several activities are being planned by the club this year and would like to work closely with ASG in putting together some events. A club newsletter was handed out by Mr. Escobar to the Senators. He thanked the ASG for their time and was excused at 1:02 p.m.
