INTRODUCTION

The 2011-2012 Educational Master Plan (EMP) is a result of the continuation of the inclusive planning process that was developed for the 2008-2009 academic year and refined in subsequent years 2009-2010 and 2010-2011, in an ongoing effort to improve the systematic and sustainable planning process for IVC.

The EMP consists of five sections: mission, planning process, community profile, student learning outcomes update, and recommendations from the EMPC. In addition to the mission, the first section includes the IVC purpose, values, and institutional student learning outcomes, followed by its 2011-2012 goals and objectives. The second section summarizes the planning process for 2011-2012, including a timeline for implementation, charts illustrating how the process works and the alignment of the committees directly or indirectly involved in the process, and an evaluation with recommendations for the planning process. The third section is a community profile and the fourth section offers an update on the Student Learning Outcomes (SLO) progress at the instructional, non-instructional, and institutional levels. The EMP concludes with recommendations stemming from the EMPC's review of the overall planning processes and the recommendations from the committees responsible for the review and revision of the resource plans. Together these recommendations and resource plans provide the foundation for the budget and fiscal plan and the direction of the District's strategic plan.

MISSION, PURPOSE, VALUES, GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Mission

The mission of IVC is to foster excellence in education that challenges students of every background to develop their intellect, character, and abilities; to assist students in achieving their educational and career goals; and to be responsive to the greater community.

The mission statement was developed during the 2001-2002 academic year by representatives from all IVC employee groups and by representatives from local businesses, industries, government, and the community at large. It was adopted by the IVC Board of Trustees on May 22, 2002, is reviewed biannually, and serves to define IVC, its purpose within the postsecondary education arena, its place in workforce and economic development, and its contribution to the structure and makeup of our community. The college community has embraced the mission, which has become a basis for identifying and defining IVC's commitment to student achievement. In an effort to track and measure our commitment to student achievement, IVC developed institutional student learning outcomes (ISLOs), which were adopted by the IVC Board of Trustees on May 16, 2006. These ISLO's - communication skills, critical thinking skills, personal responsibility, information literacy, and global awareness – arose from IVC's mission statement and serve as a foundation for its commitment to education.

Purpose

The purpose of IVC is to serve as a provider of postsecondary academic and career technical education at the lower division level. IVC provides for associate degrees and certificates, transfer education, basic skills and English proficiency, economic and workforce development, non-credit education, and lifelong learning opportunities.

In fulfilling its purpose, IVC affords students the opportunity for upward social and economic mobility. As one of more than one hundred California community colleges, IVC has as its purpose the same overarching purpose as the California community college system: To advance California's economic growth and global competitiveness through education, training, and services that contribute to continuous workforce improvement.

Values

The Core Values of IVC are:

All people should have the opportunity to reach their full educational potential

An educated citizenry is the basis for democracy

A college should embrace diversity in all its forms

A college should strive for innovation and creativity

All people have the right to access quality higher education

All people should have access to lifelong learning

INSTITUTIONAL STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who successfully complete degree and certificate programs at IVC will demonstrate competency in these five areas:

Communication Skills

Critical Thinking Skills

Personal Responsibility

Information Literacy

Global Awareness

2011-2012 GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Goal One (Student Success): Enable students to attain their educational goals, including degrees and certificates, transfer, job placement and advancement, basic skills, and lifelong learning through curricula driven by student learning outcomes and emerging opportunities in the community at large. The college defines success as grades of “C” or better.

Obj.	Objectives for EMP Goal 1
1.1	Increase successful course completion
1.2	Increase successful degree attainment
1.3	Increase successful certificate attainment
1.4	Improve transfer rates (benchmarks include transfers, transfer preparation, and associate degrees)
1.5	Increase basic skills success (benchmarks include enrollment, completions, and institute rates)
1.6	Improve the success rate of students enrolled in economic development
1.7	Improve the success rate of students enrolled in workforce training
1.8	Continue to develop and implement a comprehensive plan to identify and assess student learning outcomes (benchmarks include the SLO Plan)

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

Goal Two (Excellence in Education): Provide a college environment that responds to the higher education needs of the students and community.

3.8	Strengthen our internal and external organizational communication practices.

THE PROGRAM REVIEW PLANNING PROCESS

2010-2011 Planning Process/Development of 2011-2012 Educational Master Plan

The IVC program review planning process for 2010-2011 is described in the text and timeline of activities below and is the result of continuous improvement driven by an annual evaluation of the process, its timeline, the format or media used, and the end user's perspective on the ease and clarity of the process and formats. The web-based template for the annual program review (APR) that was introduced in fall 2009 was updated in early fall 2010 to include a feature that allows programs to request resources that are above and beyond, or in addition to, a program's base operating budget. The goal of the web-based template was to improve the planning process to more efficiently manage the work of summarizing and prioritizing requests for the staffing, technology, marketing, professional development, student learning outcomes, and facilities resource plans. The web-based form assists in linking requests to account codes, while automatically providing current year budget, and actual expenditures for the previous year utilizing IVC's central IT system, Banner, as the source. Justification for any line item can be added in a brief statement or in an attached longer format.

In addition, the web-based repository provides a link, by line item, to a specific resource plan. The link to resource plans enables individual resource plan committees to pull plan specific reports from the APR; for example, all line items linked to the marketing resource plan can comprise a single report. The APR and CPR for 2011-2012 will delineate the contractual and fixed costs from the desired line items and will provide additional reporting options to facilitate a more thorough review by the program/department, administration, and resource plan committees.

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

All departments and programs utilized the comprehensive program review (CPR) template that was introduced in fall 2009. The form includes three distinct sections – past, present and future – as well as a section for standardized data in a standardized format with an option to include additional supporting or illuminating data. One-third of all programs/departments complete a CPR annually. Thereby all campus community programs/departments are reviewed every three years.

With the completion of the 2010-2011 planning cycle and the development of the 2011-2012 Educational Master Plan, the college has completed the first three-year cycle. The new three-year cycle begins in 2011-2012 with the development of the 2012-2013 Educational Master Plan. The annual program reviews and comprehensive program reviews completed in 2010-2011 are found in Appendix A and Appendix B, respectively.

2011-2012 Planning Process/Development of 2012-2013 Educational Master Plan

The EMPC will meet at the beginning of the fall 2011 semester to go over the planning process for 2011-2012. This will include review and/or revision of EMP goals and objectives for 2012-2013.

Resource Committees and Chairs will be clearly defined and deadlines given for completion of Program Reviews, budget development, updated EMP, shared governance review, and Board approval. Training will be conducted on use of the CPR and APR tools, data entry for budget requests, and separating contractual and fixed costs from desired requests. Training will be provided to the Resource Committees on preparation and formatting of their reports, and to area administrators and Vice Presidents on reviewing and evaluating APRs and CPRs.

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

In 2011-2012, using the APR tool programs/departments will develop initial budget requests, delineating the contractual and fixed costs from the desired requests, which are submitted to their area vice president on or before the December 1. The area vice presidents complete the first review and request further information or adjustments, if needed. A summation of their review is made available by the last working day of January. All resource plan committees begin their review of the vice presidents' summations, the APR resource plan reports, and the CPRs for content pertinent to their specific resource plan. By the first of March, each resource plan committee submits its updated/revised resource plan, prioritization of requests, goals and recommendations based on predetermined criteria, which ties to the EMP goals and objectives. In addition, the resource plan committees submit any recommendations for improvements to the planning process.

The EMPC forwards the 2012-2013 updated Educational Master Plan along with the resource plans, the prioritized requests, and recommendations to the Budget and Fiscal Planning Committee, the Academic Senate and College Council by the March 10 or early enough to ensure the item is on the agenda for a March meeting. These shared governance committees will review and recommend action as appropriate. By April 15, this portion of the planning cycle will be finalized. The CBO will then direct the date for data entry into the Banner budget module, creating the Tentative Draft Budget, or Gen 1. Once the tentative draft budget data entry is complete and the tentative budget is released for review by CBO, the evaluative cycle of the planning process begins.

The 2011-2012 program review planning process is depicted immediately below and in the pictorial timeline (CHART A), planning process (CHART B), and planning stream (CHART C) that follow. The shared governance structure for 2011-2012 is also reflected below (CHART D).

2010-2011 PROCESS EVALUATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR IMPROVEMENT

Following the 2009-2010 EMPC planning process a subcommittee was appointed to evaluate the effectiveness and efficiency of the planning process and to make recommendations for improvement for the 2010-2011 cycle. Many of the recommendations were implemented for 2010-2011, while other recommendations will require more time to implement.

Recommendation #1 was to develop an Annual Program Review (APR) electronic centralized repository to provide an online report option for short and long justifications as well as attachments, and to develop a mechanism to capture line items without comingling desired with required requests. This was implemented with programs entering a status quo or required budget with duplication of prior year with contractual salary increases and line items required for new or approved programs. An enhanced, or desired budget was reflected in resource requests and their estimated costs separated from the required or status quo budget. While this process was implemented and training given in the fall 2010 there appeared to be confusion among programs in completing resource requests generating from program reviews. Additional training and follow up with programs should be given to ensure that all programs understand the process.

Recommendation #2 was for Comprehensive Program Review (CPR) to move toward an electronic centralized repository that provides online reporting options similar to the APR. This recommendation is in progress and should be implemented for the next planning cycle.

Recommendation #3 was for a resource plan-specific guide to be developed by the committees to include trigger questions, justification criteria, and required data elements to facilitate the thoroughness of the resource request. This recommendation is in progress and will be made a clear responsibility of the resource plan committees for the next planning cycle.

Recommendation #4 was for a Budgeting Process Guide to be developed by the Budget and Fiscal Planning Committee to include a review of the basics of budgeting, suggested data elements for strengthening requests, what to consider in projected or capital requests, and global justification criteria. The Budget and Fiscal Planning committee did adopt a resource allocation prioritization plan and spent most of the 2010-2011 academic year developing processes to implement the plan in 2011-2012.

Recommendation #5 was for annual orientation/training to be provided for preparers, support staff, and resource plan committee members. This was partially implemented with the training given to program leads and support staff on accessing the system, data entry into the electronic system, including entering the required budget and the separate resource requests to be reviewed by the resource committees. Training will be expanded in fall 2011 to include a review of the goals and objectives of the EMP, strategic plan, and the Board of Trustees, review of the data-driven concept and review of data analysis, and a review of the budgeting processes at IVC and the planning and budget committee guide.

Recommendation #6 was to add Student Services to the resource plans to provide a singular definitive plan for resources to provide direction to the planning and budgeting process for student services. This recommendation was implemented and a Student Services Resource Plan was submitted to the EMPC.

Recommendation # 7 was to strengthen the validity/reliability of the standardized CPR data by defining the source, processes, and distribution in a policy and procedure. This recommendation is in progress; the college researcher will head a small team consisting of department chairs to develop a policy and procedure which defines the source and processes for the data utilized by programs in their comprehensive program reviews.

Recommendation #8 was to strengthen the links between goals and objectives from the Board to EMP to department to program. This recommendation is included in the training component discussed in Recommendation #5 that is planned for fall 2011.

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

Recommendation #9 was to improve the mechanisms for tracking timeliness and completion of APR and CPR; i.e., goals and objectives addressed. This recommendation is in progress. During the 2010-2011 academic year it was difficult to follow the established time lines given the complexity of the California State Budget and its impact on the college fiscal outlook for 2011-2012. The process developed will include a mechanism to identify programs/departments struggling or unsuccessful in satisfactorily completing the different sections within the CPR; e.g. goals and objectives or supporting data, and a process for disciplining and/or rectifying programs/departments not meeting timelines.

Additional recommendations were identified based on a review of the 2010-2011 planning process.

These recommendations for improvement of the 2011-2012 cycle include the following:

#	Goal / Recommendation	EMP Goal	Due Date	Lead
1	Start the planning process earlier in the year and ensure that timelines for completion of each component are met. Issue(s): The planning process got a late start, and deadlines were extended, primarily due to the uncertainty regarding the state budget. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> It is essential that the planning process for the next cycle begins in the fall, and that deadlines are strictly enforced to ensure that the planning process is integrated and comprehensive. 	3.2, 3.3, 3.7	Fall 2011	EMPC Co-Chairs; Executive Council; Administrative Council; Instructional Council; Student Services Council

3	Establish clear resource plan committee membership and leadership. Issue(s): There appeared to be much confusion related to the resource committees as to their membership, leadership, and role. This was at least partially due to the extensive reorganization of the college’s administrative structure that was implemented 7/01/2010. Some committees that were initially sub-committees of the EMPC became standing committees with by-laws and clear membership guidelines. These include the Technology Committee, Facilities Committee, and the Marketing Committee. The status of the Staffing Committee is uncertain, and a decision needs to be made if it is to become a standing committee or remain a subcommittee of the EMPC. The Professional Development Committee became a standing committee, but membership from all representative groups was not established, and leadership of the committee was not established. COMMUNITY PROFILE

The 2007 Strategic plan for Imperial Valley by the Imperial Valley Economic Development Corporation and the College’s Environmental Scan of 2008 highlight the emerging industries in the area of renewable energy, tourism, construction, and logistics. Similarly, the 2010 census data shows that Imperial Valley continues to exceed the state averages related to population growth, Hispanic population, household income, percentage of people under poverty guidelines, lower educational attainment levels, and that we have a much younger population than the rest of the state. This demographic and economic information present the college the responsibility to continue to develop the programs and services that will educate our population in order to increase the levels of self-sufficiency, independence, and growth. The Educational Master Plan intends to develop the mechanisms that will focus on the priorities set forth by the state for community colleges in transfer education, career technical education, and basic skills. To accomplish this, the college will continue to develop partnerships and collaborations with local, state, and federal entities to maximize the educational opportunities for our students.

IVC will continue to focus on these priorities and create and update innovative programs needed to prepare our students and labor force to succeed in emerging economies. The college is undergoing a transformation with new and renovated buildings to support and sustain new programs and curricula. IVC will continue to aggressively pursue federal, state, and local grants to provide the funding and resources to meet these goals. Industry and business leaders will be consulted to ensure that our programs meet the needs of our community.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

2010-2011 Update

Efforts continued throughout the 2010-2011 academic year to infuse the Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) into the IVC campus community. Educational activities were offered in the form of presentations, workshops, website, and a curriculum institute. Activity evaluations, completed by the attendees, were used to improve and plan future activities. A student learning outcome committee met each month to discuss activities pertinent to the outcomes and assessment process. All agendas and minutes are available on the SLO Committee website: <http://www.imperial.edu/index.php?pid=3771>. IVC continued to provide nine units of reassigned time to the SLO coordinator and also funded pertinent travel.

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

Following a mid-term report submittal to ACCJC/WASC in March 2010 and a mid-term evaluation in April, the Commission concluded that the college has fully responded to the recommendation requiring the college to institutionalize Student Learning Outcomes. While the Commission found that the college remains at the developmental level, the Commission acknowledged the college's efforts toward achieving the proficiency level of the accreditation rubric.

The following is a description of the steps the District made to progress to the next level.

Course Level SLOs: A strong effort was put forth across the campus to integrate outcomes and assessments into courses. At its review in March 2011, the SLO Committee found that 46% of the college's total inventory of courses had SLOs and 31% were assessed; 53% of courses offered in 2009-2010 had the minimum level of identified SLOs. Approximately 207 course level cycle assessments were submitted from data collected during 2009-2010. Compared to the previous year, there were 15% more cycle assessments completed and the assessments included more evidence that faculty are using the outcomes process to validate student learning and to make pedagogical improvements. Upon reviewing these forms, specifically the Course Improvement and Process Effectiveness sections, the following categories of improvement were noted.

- Pedagogical Improvements: Revised assignments, changes in class activity sequence, added demonstrations, increased or revised in-class and/or out-of-class activities, more spent time on critical thinking, assignment instructions redesigned for increased transparency; study guides provided; and more individual assistance made available to students.
- SLO Process Improvements and Verification of Student Learning Outcomes Process: Increased number of full-time and part-time faculty involved in outcomes process, learning assessments reconsidered, valuable assessments derived from exam results, SLOs divided into more outcomes to increase assessment validity, increased number of faculty using the same assessment tool to make assessing data easier, positive results from the strength training program, and confirmation of rubric efficacy.

- Verification of Learning: Increased percentage of students demonstrating acquisition of outcomes and improved knowledge of students' abilities and skills. Faculty members are starting to compare data collected one semester to another semester and compare online with face-to-face classes. For example, through a cross-semester comparison, it was noted that less plagiarism occurred because it was being better addressed in class.
- Improvements to Evaluation Techniques: Planned changes or additions to evaluations; considering various assessments and changing them through this process. For example, while one instructor was moving to multiple-choice assessments another was abandoning them. Other assessment changes included adding a log to record student progress, adding pre/post tests, adding performance tests, changing the timing of assessments, and increasing the number of DSPS visits per student.
- Emphasis on Communication Skills and Study Habits: Tutoring Center referrals, books placed on reserve at the Library, reminders for students to buy course books, course textbooks replaced with more stimulating textbooks, source citation rubrics included, more student-friendly illustrated texts, more time spent on bibliographies and papers, a lab session dedicated to scientific writing, English issues reviewed, an increased number of students attempting class exams, and plagiarism and English language issues discussions.
- Miscellaneous: Very few faculty members made statements that there would be no improvements based on assessment of data. Others expressed a need for more assistance with the SLO process. These comments indicated a need for more opportunities to dialogue about the SLO process, improved faculty participation, added financial assistance for SLO trainings, and the implementation of an institutional mechanism for ILO compliance.

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

The SLO Cycle Assessments for fall 2010 courses are due on May 27, 2011. For the 2011-2012 school year, all courses should have the minimum number of outcomes and at least one outcome should be assessed per year. Beginning in the 2010-2011 academic term, SLOs were embedded into the course outline of record through the college's CurricuUNet system. This process will allow for a more institutional method of tracking SLO's at the course and program level. For the 2011-2012 school year, all courses should have the minimum number of outcomes and at least one outcome should be assessed per year.

Instructional Program Level SLOs: Improvements were made to the SLO Program grid piloted in spring 2010 and the program grid was officially launched campus-wide as part of the fall 2010 comprehensive program review process.

Service Area Outcomes (SAO): The new Program Outcomes SAO form was implemented in 2010-2011. Phase II of this process, the completed Cycle Assessments, are due July 31, 2011. This process will continue for 2011-2012.

Institutional Student Learning Outcomes (ISLO): The ISLOs defined in the "Strive for Five" form remained the same in 2010-2011. Under the plan, all courses and programs identify how one or more of the ISLOs are being introduced and/or reinforced in a particular class or program. The Strive for Five form is a working document in which the IVC community is able to add to and improve as we move forward, helping it become a more accurate and current picture of Institutional Student Learning Outcomes.

Looking Forward

While many made reference to how this year's completed cycle assessments will be used to make improvements in the near future, the college remains aware a full cycle has not yet been completed. The SLO Coordinator will work with committees to design a more complete SLO plan that includes assessment dates, and the plan will be disseminated to the college community through the IVC website, and department and committee meetings.

With the development of the SLO/SAO program form which includes a grid where instructional programs can verify how SLOs relate back to ISLOs, next year's reports should provide even more concise information and more long-term goals and improvement plans for course and program outcomes. Also, we will have more programs develop a table listing the course outcomes.

Progress in the comprehensive program review process will continue by making sure all instructional programs understand the due dates for course level and program level outcome development and assessment. Over the next year, the Program Outcomes SLO form for instruction which includes goals, assessments, due dates, course level outcomes and evaluation plans, and the ISLO Grid will be implemented. Service Areas have already begun implementing the new Program Outcomes SAO form this year. As we move forward, the importance of using data to support our improvement plans will be stressed.

The SLO Committee will continue to support faculty and staff with course-level and non-instructional program SLOs as well as continuing to work with the campus on instructional program-level outcomes. In addition, the college will implement a two day staff development flex program next year in which SLO workshops will be offered. As we go forward, we will be merging the instructional and service area outcome assessment into the comprehensive review process.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM RESOURCE PLAN COMMITTEES

The following recommendations have been made by the EMPC based on the data collected in the program review process, and the information and recommendations from each resource plan committee.

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

SLO/SAO Recommendations

After reviewing sixteen 2010 Comprehensive Program Review reports, it was determined that all programs reporting out this year are involved in the SLO process. This is an improvement over last year when not all reports even included SLO updates, causing programs to leave out progress that had been made and to miss out on an opportunity to set goals for completion. The CPR form's new SLO prompting question seemed to work well.

Each report included a description of where the program was in the SLO process, which showed that all programs have been identifying SLOs/SAOs. Three programs did discuss how data was used to make improvements (one instruction and two service areas). Many programs made reference to how this year's completed cycle assessments will be used to make improvements in the near future.

Inclusion of an explanation of how data is being used to improve education will be emphasized in the upcoming year.

The SLO/SAO Committee recommendations are listed below and the committee report is found in Appendix C.

Staffing Recommendations

The Staffing Resource Planning Committee (SRPC) for 2010-2011 strove to broaden representation from all campus community groups: faculty, classified manager, non-teaching faculty, classified, and administration.

The SPRC reviewed and evaluated the objectives set in the prior year and developed the following objectives for 2011-2012:

1. To compile, evaluate, and rank the staffing requests presented by the various campus departments in their 2011-2012 Annual and Comprehensive Program Reviews;
2. To continue the evaluative process of the role and purpose of the Staffing Resource Planning Committee.

See Appendix D for a complete committee report.

Technology Recommendations

The Technology Planning Committee (TPC) evaluated and prioritized the 2011-2012 APR budget requests. The subcommittee also reviewed future needs that programs/departments listed in their comprehensive program reviews that would have an impact on technology. In addition, the group reviewed the goals set forth in the Strategic Technology Plan dated April 14, 2011. All technology needs listed by programs and departments through program review fall within the goals of the Strategic Technology Plan. All recommendations are listed in order of priority, and prioritization is based on numbers of programs impacted and numbers of students impacted within the program. The Technology Planning Committee report is found in Appendix E.

Facilities Recommendations

The Facilities Planning Committee reevaluated the prioritization criteria developed during the 2010-2011 cycle and determined it still appropriate for the prioritization of requests for the 2011-2012 program review budget requests. Review included both the Annual Program Review and

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

Comprehensive Program Review requests for items that aligned with the Facilities Resource Plan. Most of the requests were included in the CPR and addressed the need to modernize instructional space and to address discipline specific needs. Those requests prioritized as a 2 are scheduled for modernization with either Measure J or Measure K funds. Another large grouping are labeled 6 as they are validated requests and recommendations that stemmed from the program review process, but currently are not critical to continuance of the program, or service. Nearly all items in the APR were categorized as not-applicable as many were identified routine operational costs; i.e. rental expenses, ongoing maintenance or ongoing phone lines, benefit category items, and memberships and dues. Items that had a cost value of less than $500 were identified categorized as a non-capitalized request or not applicable; i.e. pool operation expense. Additional detailed information will be requested from the AJ and POST Coordinator regarding the request in accounts 5630 on the APR as the funding source is most likely a CTE grant. The two grids immediately following provide the prioritization criteria and the prioritization of the items requested.

Planning and Budget Recommendations

Entering into the 2010-2011 review-evaluation-planning cycle, the Planning and Budget Committee was aware of the ongoing saga of the California fiscal crisis and the subsequent financial impact and the college's need for fiscal restraint in the 2011-2012 budget. As the 2011-2012 budget was developed, the fluidity of the State budget placed a cautionary tone on the Annual Program Reviews and Comprehensive Program Reviews process.

The Planning and Budget Committee reviewed the 2010 budget development guidelines and the 2010 prioritization criteria and concurred to the continued utilization of both as guides to prioritization.

After reviewing the tools, the Planning and Budget Committee developed goals and recommendations as follows for the 2011-2012 planning cycle and linked them to the EMP goals when possible. In addition to the goal/recommendation, the committee added dates due and lead responsible persons. Finally the committee concurred these recommendations should be reevaluated in September 2011 to ensure inclusion of any changes required based on any amendments to the State budget and potential for trickledown consequences to the college.

Professional Development Recommendations

In 2011 the Academic Senate assigned a task force to reestablish a Flexible Calendar Program for professional development of the college community. The Academic Senate has approved the position description of the Professional Development/Flex Coordinator and the Professional Development/Flex Committee structure which includes representation of student, staff, and administration. As final stages of the comprehensive Professional Development/Flex Program Plan are being vetted and codified through the shared governance processes, the committee recommended the merger of the former Educational Master Plan Professional Development Committee, its Resource Plan, and its opportunities and information on the website <http://www.imperial.edu/index.php?pid=5278> with the new Professional Development/Flex Committee and structure. It is believed the merger will present a more efficient, less duplicative, process and will improve communication through the college community. In addition to the finalization of the Educational Master Plan reports, all required documents for the Flex Program will be submitted to the Chancellor’s Office prior to the close of the spring 2011 semester.

This group evaluated the goals and recommendations of the 2010-2011 annual program review and comprehensive program review process and elected to continue many as noted in the grid below with additional detail inserted in the goals and in the dates due. The prioritization noted in the 2010-2011 report were reevaluated and the committee concurred that the prioritizations should remain the same for the 2011-2012 requests. Those requests marked Priority 1 are considered critical to the mission of the college and should include items such as Student Learning Outcomes, accreditation, or training required for program certification or licensure. Priorities 2 and 3 were assigned to requests deemed less essential such as discretionary conferences or training for faculty to maintain currency in their field. The requests that impact District funds are shown below and are listed in order of priority according to the committee ranking of importance to the institutional goals with consideration of the justification supplied.

Marketing Recommendations

The committee analyzed the Annual Program Reviews of the individual departments encompassing community relations, hospitality for advisory committees, governmental relations, events, printing needs, and advertising.

While "Marketing" has been used in the past to define what this committee's role is in the program review process, the committee applied a broader definition to its prioritization process – using the public relations definition as stated in the Communication Department's Comprehensive Program Review.

Educational Master Plan for 2011-2012

An analysis of all 2010-2011 comprehensive program reviews showed a consistent thread that the state budget crisis is having a major impact upon student access in all programs. In the context of IVC's Public Relations programs, these issues will create potential controversies and misperceptions in the community that will need to be addressed by the campus community.

Marketing Planning Committee Goals and Recommendations

Student Services Recommendations

The Student Services Resource Plan is a compilation of objectives and resource requests gleaned from the Student Services Plan and the area’s annual program reviews. Developed by the Student Services Council, in collaboration with all interested employees within the Student Services area, the six year Student Services Plan is an overarching document which combines all unit planning reports, including the annual and comprehensive program reviews, the Student Services Resource Plan, the Education Master Plan, and the Accreditation Self-Evaluation, Standard IIB. While the Student Services Resource Plan is a part of the Student Services Strategic Plan, due to its direct connection to the Education Master Plan it does flow from the same set of goals and objectives: Student Success; Excellence in Education; and College Effectiveness. The following goals and resource requests reflect the area’s direction for the coming year, with plans to move toward a new emphasis on helping students ‘get in, get done, and get out’. The resources requested by the Student Services programs relies heavily on Service Area Outcomes, both student and program, to determine priorities for resource allocation while targets are now more objective and data driven.

Following are the goals and recommendations of the Student Services Planning Committee:

Summary

Imperial Valley College has continued to make its governance and decision-making processes more effective in 2010-2011 by assuring that each resource planning committee provided a report based on program review which tied to the Education Master Plan goals. The link between planning and budgeting was achieved very effectively this year so that the budget is based on program reviews and the comprehensive master plan. All 31 comprehensive program reviews submitted during this year included SLOs and their application. This indicates that IVC is moving forward in the process of integrating SLOs and SAOs into all courses and non-instructional programs.

The volatility of the state budget has influenced and complicated all planning in 2010-2011. The planning process has worked effectively and efficiently this year with priorities clearly identified, tied to the budget, and tied to planning. Implementation, however, will depend on the state budget which was not yet determined at this time of this report.
