The committee discussed conclusions that could be derived from the results. Analysis from initial rankings vs. group rankings discussed. For future comparative data the committee agreed that more recent employer data could be gathered. The employer data used for this exercise was from 2009.

Jill asked if members would be interested in repeating this focus group next June. Members were in favor of moving forward with planning the event. Students would need to show up on time to qualify for raffle and complete every activity. Jill suggested reviewing the student majors with the analysis process.
