

IMPERIAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT AP 4105 Distance Education

Reference:

Title 5, Sections 55200 et seq.

34 CFR Section 602.17 (U.S. Department of Education regulations on the Integrity of Federal Student Financial Aid Programs under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended);

ACCJC Accreditation Standard II.A.1

Consistent with federal regulations pertaining to federal financial aid eligibility, the District must authenticate or verify that the student who registers in a distance education or correspondence education courses is the same student who participates in and completes the course or program and receives the academic credit. The District will provide to each student at the time of registration, a statement of the process in place to protect student privacy and estimated additional student charges associated with verification of student identity, if any.

The Chief Instructional Officer shall utilize one or more of these methods to authenticate or verify the student's identity:

- secure credentialing/login and password;
- proctored examinations; or
- new or other technologies and practices that are effective in verifying student identification.

Definition: Distance education means instruction in which the instructor and student are separated by distance and interact through the assistance of communication technology. This definition includes both hybrid and fully online classes.

Course Approval: Each proposed or existing course offered by distance education shall be reviewed and approved separately. Separate approval is mandatory if any portion of the instruction in a course or a course section is designed to be provided through distance education.

The review and approval of new and existing distance education courses shall follow the curriculum approval procedures outlined in Administrative Procedures 4020, Program and Curriculum Development. Distance education courses shall be approved under the same conditions and criteria as all other courses, in accordance with the procedures published on the Distance Education website.

Certification: When approving distance education courses, the Curriculum Committee will certify the following:

Course Quality Standards: The same standards of course quality are applied to the distance education courses as are applied to traditional classroom courses, as expressed in the course outline of record.

Course Quality Determinations: Determinations and judgments about the quality of the distance education course were made with the full involvement of the Curriculum Committee approval procedures.

Instructor Contact: Each section of the course that is delivered through distance education will include regular, effective contact between instructor and students.

Duration of Approval: All distance education courses approved under this procedure will continue to be in effect unless there are substantive changes of the course outline.

Use of CMS for Distance Education: All distance education courses must utilize the IVC approved course management system (CMS) unless prior approval for alternative technologies is given by the faculty member's division chair, in consultation with the Chief Instruction Officer and the Distance Education Coordinator.

State Authorization for Distance Education: IVC is authorized to provide distance education in the states of California and Arizona.
