

FICMAT

REDESIGN TEAM

- FCMAT Role:
 - To provide an independent public report focused on areas of need for improvement.
 - Final report presentation to the Board on December 15, 2012

- Redesign Team Role:
 - Act as a source for communication regarding the FCMAT report and the follow up actions necessary.
 - Act as conscious of IVC as we will have to address the consequences if we fail to act on FCMAT report.
 - Act as a recommending body to the Board and President and to facilitate the transition from recommendations to implementation.

- Team Members:
 - Executive Council members:
 - Victor Jaime
 - Kathy Berry
 - John Lau
 - Todd Finnell
 - Travis Gregory
 - Ted Ceasar
 - Sergio Lopez
 - Michael Heumann
 - Martha Garcia
 - Efrain Silva
 - Tina Aguirre
 - Todd Evangelist
 - Beatriz Avila
 - Craig Blek
 - Melody Chronister
 - Matthew Thale
 - Linda Amidon
 - Jill Nelipovich

- Set Our Ground Rules:
 - Excuse yourself if you cannot communicate the talking points due to role conflict
 - Commit to the Team purpose, development of a communication plan, and implementation of the plan
 - Hold team to accountability throughout all phases of the implementation plan
 - Differentiate what is from FCMAT and what is from the Redesign Team
 - Speak in a single voice and create a spirit of ownership among all stakeholders

- Identify Stakeholders and methods of communication:
 - Campus stakeholders: Students, faculty, staff, administration (i.e. at orientation, as agenda item at all meetings on campus, though forums, in memos or campus e-mail, through journalism class interviews, in video links, etc.)
 - External stakeholders: community members, community organizations, local institutions, community partners (i.e. WIB, CCC) via talking points in presentations, links to road to recovery.
