Strategic Educational Master Plan

Distance Education Coordinator, Ms. Gaylla Finnell and Dean of Counseling, Mr. Ted Ceasar were present to provide more information regarding the six-year Strategic Educational Master plan. Ms. Finnell stated that the plan focuses on the major key points and not only to meet the educational plan but also to meet technology plans. This plan is critical and the committee members will check on the plan once a year to ensure that we are moving along towards all the projected goals. Dean Ceasar stated that ASG has had President Tango-an represent them in all the EMP meetings and her input has been critical. Dean Ceasar and Ms. Finnell both thanked the ASG for their support.

M/S/C (V. Barrientos/Barajas) to endorse the six-year Strategic Educational Master Plan as presented.

Student Transit Transportation

President Tango-an attended the IV Transit Board meeting last week where it was discussed the possibility of assigning buses specifically for students attending IVC and SDSU-IV Campuses in Calexico and Brawley. A survey will be conducted on campus on Wednesday, November 18, 2015 and Thursday, November 19, 2015. A location is yet to be determined. President Tango-an will be following up in regards to this item.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Senators

Treasurer Barrientos stated that Chemistry 202, Chemistry 204 and Calculus 3 are being offered this Spring 2016 at the same time. Calculus 3 is offered in the spring semesters. This is an inconvenience for several students. VP Lopez suggested meeting with the Dean of Science and Math, Dr. Ashok in regards to this item.

President

President Tango-an reminded the Rules Committee to review the ASG Constitution and begin to address the changes.

Advisor

VP Lopez reminded Senators to register for both Winter and Spring 2016 tomorrow, Tuesday after 3:00 p.m.
