PUBLIC COMMENTS

President Espejo Rodarte shared the following email from Student, Christian Estrada Rodriguez:

Dear ASG President Karla,

I will not be able to make it to today's meeting.

If I am not mistaking, there is public comment in Monday's meetings. Please consider the following as a comment:

Thanks for the work to get a Disability Rights Presentation at Imperial Valley College on May 31. I am ready to attend to it. It would be beneficial for those that will be in the ASG next fiscal year to attend listen to this presentation. Also, having the next Imperial Valley College's superintendent/president would be good. By hearing from the disabled students, advocacy would be appreciated from IVC. During the summer, a Disability Rights Presentation would be beneficial to those that will be graduate from high school and attend IVC. Not only would those that will graduate from high school would be an advantage to learn rights, but also those that take care of such students that need assistance would be worth it, so a lot of people can be informed of the disability rights. Indeed, allowing the community to learn about higher education disability rights would be helpful, so they can know what rights students with disabilities have in college level to not give up in continuing their education. Having future disability rights presentations opened to the public and not conflicting with other college activities/events at Imperial Valley College would be reasonable to have needed time to do presentations and answer disability higher education questions.
