Establishing and/or Reviewing Prerequisites, Corequisites and Advisories

The use of this guide is intended as a resource for IVC faculty and staff in the area of curriculum development and approval. Its contents are a compilation of local and statewide policies and procedures in place at the time of its publication. While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of its contents, the Curriculum Committee, a sub-committee of the IVC Academic Senate, reserves the right to make any corrections, omissions, or updates as needed to meet curricular standards and compliance.

Introduction

Prerequisites, co-requisites, advisories, and limitations are necessary to ensure that students succeed in their coursework and have access to the courses they require. It is important to have prerequisites in place where they are a vital factor in maintaining academic standards. It is also necessary to ensure that prerequisites, co-requisites, advisories, and limitations do not constitute unjustifiable obstacles to student access and success. Therefore, to foster the appropriate balance between these two concerns, the Education Code requires that prerequisites, co-requisites, advisories, and limitations be established based solely on content review or content review with statistical validation. This guide will provide the process, steps, and forms necessary to implement prerequisites, co-requisites, advisories, and limitations on enrollment.

Regulatory Changes

The rules governing prerequisites are found in Title 5 §55003

Colleges wishing to implement new prerequisites through content review will need to know what has and has not changed in regulation. Much more is unchanged regarding prerequisites than is new. The following aspects of prerequisites remain unchanged:

- ◆ Prerequisites continue to be mandatory when a student is “highly unlikely to succeed” without the prerequisite;
- ◆ Prerequisites must still be validated on a course-by-course and/or program-by-program basis;
- ◆ Prerequisites must be revalidated every six years or two years for career technical education (CTE, i.e., vocational) courses;
- ◆ Prerequisites or corequisites may still be required without validation when they are:
 1. required by statute or regulation,
 2. part of a lecture-lab, and
 3. required by a four-year college;
- ◆ Colleges must still be attentive to and seek to alleviate any disproportionate impact; and,
- ◆ Students may challenge prerequisites.

The primary change in the revised version of §55003 is that colleges may choose between “traditional” content review in combination with statistical validation or content review as accompanied by additional requirements.

Refer to AP 4260 Prerequisites and Co-Requisites for full procedural legal requirements.*

CONTENT REVIEW PROCESS

The term “content review” is a misnomer. The content review process is far more than a mere examination of the content of a proposed or existing course. Rather, content review is a process that determines what skills or knowledge are required for success in a given course and how that preparation can be obtained in order to advise or require students to acquire the necessary preparation prior to enrolling in (prerequisite) or while taking (corequisite) a given course. It is more than reviewing the traditional “exit and entrance skills” and involves examining how the course is taught and all components of the COR.

Textual Prerequisite/Corequisite/Advisory:

SECTION 1 - CONTENT REVIEW: If any criterion is not met, the prerequisite will be disallowed.

Criteria	Met	Not Met
1. Faculty with appropriate expertise have been involved in the determination of the prerequisite, corequisite, or advisory.
2. The department in which the course is (will be) taught has considered course objectives in accordance with accreditation standards.
3. Selection of this prerequisite, corequisite, or advisory is based on tests, the type and number of examinations, and grading criteria.
4. Selection of this prerequisite, corequisite, or advisory is based on a detailed course syllabus and outline of record, related instructional materials, and course format.
5. The body of knowledge and/or skills which are necessary for success before and/or concurrent with enrollment have been specified in writing.
6. The course materials presented in this prerequisite or corequisite have been reviewed and determined to teach knowledge or skills needed for success in the course requiring this prerequisite.
7. The body of knowledge and/or skills necessary for success in the course have been matched with the knowledge and skills developed by the prerequisite, corequisite, or advisory.
8. The body of knowledge and/or skills taught in the prerequisite are not an instructional unit of the course requiring the prerequisite.
9. Written documentation that steps 1 to 8 above have been taken is readily available in departmental files.

SECTION II - LEVELS OF SCRUTINY:

In addition to the affirmation of content review listed in Section I, an additional level of scrutiny is also required. The level of scrutiny depends on which type of prerequisite is involved. Please identify below which level is being used to justify the proposed prerequisite.

- Type 1: Required prerequisite at UC or CSU

Identify three UC or CSU campuses that offer the equivalent course with the equivalent prerequisite.

Complete the Prerequisite Worksheet

Complete UC/CSU Justification Form

- Type 2: Sequential within a discipline (e.g., ART 262, 263, 264)

Complete the Prerequisite Worksheet

- Type 3: Course in communication or computational skills as a prerequisite for course other than another skills course (e.g., MATH 091 prerequisite for BIOL 100)

Complete the Prerequisite Worksheet

Complete Statistical Data Analysis

- Type 4: Health and Safety

Students who lack the prerequisite might endanger themselves, other students or staff.

Complete Health and Safety Form

- Type 5: Non-course prerequisites (GPA, recency, other measures of readiness)

Data must be collected according to sound research principles in order to justify such prerequisites.

Complete the Prerequisite Worksheet

Completing the prerequisite worksheet:

Determine what skills are necessary for students to be successful (skills without which they will likely not succeed (i.e., pass the course)). The entrance skills must be worded as SKILLS. "What skills do students need to have BEFORE the course begins in order to be successful?" Keep in mind that "success" in the course means "passing" the course. "Success" does not mean "more likely to get a B or higher." For example:

- "Learn how to read college level textbooks" is NOT an entrance skill.
- "Ability to read college level textbooks" IS an entrance skill.

Once the entrance skills necessary for success are identified, then review the exit skills (objectives) of the existing course to determine which course(s) sufficiently prepare students (based on the entrance skills) to be successful in the course in question.

- It is highly unlikely that there will be a "1-to-1 relationship" between the entrance skills and exit skills. Course A, for example, may have 10 objectives, but perhaps only 5 (or even just 1) are essential for success in Course B. Only the relevant exit skills should be used to justify a prerequisite.

UC/CSU PREREQUISITE/COREQUISITE JUSTIFICATION FORM

A prerequisite/corequisite in another discipline (other than English or Math) may be established provided that, in addition to the Content Review, three University of California or California State University campuses can be identified that offer the equivalent course with the equivalent prerequisite. This justification is intended for very common cases. Examples are standard science class prerequisites or standard foreign language classes. Any combination of University of California campuses and California State University campuses is acceptable to satisfy this requirement.

If you are having difficulty finding three CSU or UC courses that have the same courses and the same prerequisites, check with the College Articulation Officer; UC and CSU catalogs are located in the Counseling Center.

Required:

- Content review
- Three UC or CSU campuses that offer the equivalent course with the equivalent prerequisite in order to demonstrate that, in fact, the prerequisite in question is a usual, customary, and reasonable one. Attach examples of the UC and/or CSU course descriptions from the respective catalogs.

HEALTH AND SAFETY PREREQUISITES/COREQUISITES FORM

A prerequisite/corequisite may be established provided that the course for which the prerequisite is proposed is one in which the student might endanger his or her own health and safety and that of others. The prerequisite consists of the necessary skills that the student must possess in order to protect his or her health and safety or that of others before entering the course. Content review for health and safety identifies the health and safety skills necessary for a student to enter a particular course rather than the skills or body of knowledge necessary for a student to succeed in the course. Disciplines should also review the applicable provisions of the Federal Government's Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 in regard to any requirements that apply specifically to students with disabilities and the Federal Vocational Education provisions that relate to students with limited English skills.

Required:

- Content review for health and safety.
- Narrative description and justification for the co/prerequisite.

Course: _____

Description of health and safety pre/corequisite (type of course, test, or program):

Justification:

LIMITATION ON ENROLLMENT JUSTIFICATION FORM

Enrollment in courses or blocks of courses may be limited based on performance, honors, or other performance-based criteria. In these cases, there must be equivalent courses available to meet degree or certificate requirements.

Course Number(s):

Course Title(s):

Rationale for Limiting Enrollment:

Equivalent course(s) available to meet degree or certificate requirements:

Disproportionate impact in performance-based course

If the limitation is based on performance, it must be determined during program review whether the limitation disproportionately keeps underrepresented students from enrolling in the course or block of courses. In this case, a plan must be adopted to remedy this disproportionate impact.

Plan for study or remedy (and timelines):

Statistical Data Analysis Procedures

Comparison of students with/without prerequisite or corequisite and students who are successful/not successful must demonstrate that there is a statistically significant difference between students with/without prerequisite.

The following questions will serve as the basis for discussion and serve as a preliminary analysis:

- Is the prerequisite reasonably likely to improve student success?
- What enrollment/access issues might arise?
- What impact might this have on other programs?

The following variables will be extracted from Banner for the analysis:

MIS Data Elements

- GI03 (Term Identifier)
- CB01 (Course-Department-Number)
- SX01 (Enrollment-Effective-Date)
- SX04 (Enrollment-Grade)
- SB, SD, STD Data Elements (for Disproportionate Impact)

Assessment Data

- Placement Recommendation
- Multiple Measures variables

Additional Data

- Placement Recommendation
- Qualitative Data such as focus groups, informal interviews, and other surveys to faculty, students, and/or administration

The data will be analyzed for statistical significance (T-Test, Chi-Square, Pearson Correlation, odds ratio, average percent gain, or through other tests) to measure differences or relationships in the data. The Comparison of performance between the target course of students who did and did not meet the prerequisite. The analysis will include other relevant questions to ensure that student equity and success for our students:

- What is the racial/age/gender/disability makeup of the course post-implementation compared to pre-implementation?
- Does the increased success of students in each protected category support the implementation if indeed the percentages of students in each group have changed?
- Was there disproportionate impact?
- What effect did the implementation have on overall course enrollment?

A holistic review will be performed and supported by statistical analysis with a recommendation for the prerequisite.

Revalidation Procedure

Courses with prerequisites, co-requisites, and/or recommended preparation that consist of computational or communication courses must be revalidated every 2 years (for CTE) or every 6 years (for all others). This process also applies to courses with prerequisites that are outside the discipline.

Please use the forms included in this document.
