Recent Enrollment Demand: High Medium Low

Projection for Future Demand : Growing Stable Declining

Opportunity Analysis: (Successes, new curriculum development, alternative delivery mechanisms, interdisciplinary strategies, etc.)

This program will be affected by the new TMCs since they have streamlined the units and time needed for a student to earn a degree

Re-assessing the current degree in light of the new TMC

Continue to work with faculty in a cross-disciplinary sharing of expertise.

Blackboard is now available for faculty to incorporate into their teaching approach, there have been many trainings on campus, and the interest and use is growing.

The addition of a statistics course on campus would strengthen the program.

Summary of Program "Health" Evaluation: (Including consideration of size, score, productivity and quality of outcomes)

Stable: BSS courses that feed into this degree remain strong and some in Sociology, History, and Anthropology has significant waiting list.
Section offerings have flexed to accommodate student demand.

Fill Rates: are high, usually in the high 90s or above 100% for the core courses.

There have been 211 degrees earned over the last 6 semesters, which accounts for 35.16 per semester.

Student Learning Outcomes and Program Learning Outcomes

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment-completion

- All courses have identified SLOs equivalent to their number of units
- SLOs are posted on faculty syllabi
- SLOs are posted on curricunet
- New Chair of Department will monitor the collection, assessments, and posting of SLOs on website

Program Learning Outcomes Assessment

- All courses have identified SLOs equivalent to their number of units
- SLOs are posted on faculty syllabi
- SLOs are posted on curricunet

Success Rate of Student Learning

- Increasing faculty involvement in collecting the data for assessment
- SLOs are standing agenda items
- New Chair of Department will monitor the collection, assessments, and posting of SLOs on website

Future Goals of Program

Make the transition to the new TMC
Expand the Resource Media Library and make available to the Campus and community organizations.

Resource requests from annual program review
