

22. What is a minor?

A minor is a secondary focus of study that you may choose to augment your major for career purposes, for graduate education, or simply out of interest. You will be required to complete far fewer units for a minor than for a major.